Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Barrett Asset Management, LLC

What we do

How does Barrett protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to your non-public information to those employees and vendors who need to know that information to service your account.

How does Barrett collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

Fill out an account application, sign our advisory agreement, open a brokerage/custodial account, communicate with us, purchase or sell securities, deposit or withdraw funds, provide or update your investment profile, instruct your broker, custodian or bank to forward your statements to us or grant us access to your information, instruct members of your family or other professionals such as accountants or attorneys to share your information with us.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes
- information about your credit worthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
